Brokers Worldwide's Online Global Hotspots & Twitter Updates

September 28, 2011

As you know, Brokers Worldwide periodically sends out NewsFlash emails to keep you informed about significant issues happening around the world that may affect the delivery of your mail and parcels. In an effort to keep our NewsFlash relevant, we reserve it for major events that may have a considerable impact on our customers. However, in addition to our periodic NewsFlash, Brokers Worldwide regularly maintains a list of Global Hotspots on our website which is updated with news briefs as we are made aware of them, including major events, but also smaller events such as short-term industrial action, minor weather-related delays, etc. You can also follow us on Twitter!
